Notes on collection of personal data

1. The personal data provided in this application form will be used by the Travel Industry Council of Hong Kong (TIC) for the following purposes:
 - (i) to process applications for the Tourist Guide Pass;
 - (ii) to maintain applicants' records in the TIC;
 - (iii) to issue the Tourist Guide Pass to qualified applicants;
 - (iv) to include the names (Chinese and English) of Pass holders, their Pass numbers and the expiry dates of their Passes in the Tourist Guide Directory, which is displayed on the TIC's website and may be accessed by travel agents and members of the public;
 - (v) to post on the TIC's website the information on suspensions or revocations of Tourist Guide Passes, which may be accessed by travel agents and members of the public;
 - (vi) to disseminate information of the TIC (including course information) to Pass holders by any means (including SMS, e-mail, fax, post, etc.); and
 - (vii) any other related purposes.
2. Applicants are advised to provide sufficient information as far as possible, otherwise their applications may be unable to be processed.
3. Applicants will be required to produce their HKID Card in person for verification purposes, and staff of the TIC will only sign the application form after verifying the contents of the applicant's HKID Card. If an applicant is unable to come to the TIC in person, the applicant may submit a copy of his/her HKID Card by post or by fax but any such copy shall be retained until such time as the applicant concerned is able to produce his/her HKID Card in person for verification purposes. The TIC reserves the right to require the production and to make and retain copies of an applicant's HKID Card in any circumstances which are permitted by law.
4. The TIC will keep the personal data of applicants confidential but may provide such data to any other person or his/her representative for any one or more of the purposes set out in paragraph 1 above.
5. According to the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, applicants have the right to:
 - (i) ascertain whether their personal data are held by the TIC;
 - (ii) obtain a copy of the data mentioned in paragraph 5(i); and
 - (iii) correct their personal data held by the TIC.Applicants should provide the TIC with sufficient information in order for their identity to be determined, otherwise their data access request may be rejected. The TIC may impose a fee on any such request.
6. Any request for access to personal data should be made in writing and addressed to the TIC Industry Training Department at Rooms 1706-09, Fortress Tower, 250 King's Road, North Point, Hong Kong.

Points to note for holders of the Tourist Guide Pass

I. Conditions for issuance of the Tourist Guide Pass

1. The Tourist Guide Pass is issued by the Travel Industry Council of Hong Kong (TIC) and subject to the relevant regulations of the TIC as currently in force and as amended from time to time. Pass holders are required to read about the latest news at the TIC's website regularly.
2. The Tourist Guide Pass is the property of the TIC. It is not transferable and must not be used for purposes other than those specified. The TIC reserves the right to revoke, terminate or withdraw the Pass.
3. Holders of the Tourist Guide Pass must wear the valid Pass on their chest while on duty, and must cooperate with the inspectors assigned by the TIC by producing the Tourist Guide Pass and Hong Kong Identity Card for identity verification upon request.
4. The names (Chinese and English) of Pass holders, their Pass numbers and the expiry dates of their Passes will be included in the Tourist Guide Directory, which is displayed on the TIC's website and may be accessed by travel agents and members of the public.
5. Pass holders must observe the codes and directives concerning tourist guides issued by the TIC. Non-compliance with the codes and directives will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Information on suspensions or revocations of Tourist Guide Passes will be posted on the TIC's website for different durations in accordance with relevant guidelines, which may be accessed by travel agents and members of the public.
6. Loss of the Tourist Guide Pass should be reported to the TIC immediately for re-issuance of a new one. The procedures and application form for re-issuing the Tourist guide Pass can be downloaded from the TIC's website (https://www.tichk.org/sites/default/files/2021-02/guide_pass_reissue.pdf).
7. Pass holders are obligated to take steps by themselves to ensure that they do not contravene the laws of Hong Kong or other places when working as a tour guide. Pass holders must also take initiative to inform the TIC at their earliest convenience should they be convicted an offence which involved narcotics or drugs, sex or violence, or seriously improper conduct or dishonesty (including but not in any way limited to: unlawfully undertaking any business without proper authorisation or permission; smuggling; theft; forgery; fraud; deceit; burglary; handling stolen goods, bribery or corruption) at any place and any time. Otherwise, their Pass may be suspended or revoked.
8. Pass holders whose Pass is issued through the "Waiver Programme for Non-English-and-Chinese-Speaking Tourist Guides" or under the "Accreditation System for Non-English-and-Chinese-Speaking Tourist Guides" are not allowed to use Cantonese, English or Mandarin in receiving inbound package tours.
9. Pass holders whose Pass is issued through "Waiver Programme for English-Speaking Tourist Guides" (formerly known as "Waiver Programme for English-but-non-Chinese-Speaking Tourist Guides") are not allowed to use Cantonese or Mandarin in receiving inbound package tours.

II. Renewal of the Tourist Guide Pass

1. Pass holders who wish to continue to undertake their duties as a tourist guide must observe the expiry date of the Pass and renew their Pass accordingly. No reminders will be sent by the TIC for the renewal of the Pass in due course. Application for renewal of the Pass will be accepted three months before its expiry date.

The information and application form for the renewal of the Tourist Guide Pass can be downloaded from the TIC's website (https://www.tichk.org/sites/default/files/2021-02/guide_pass_renewal_eng.pdf).

Ref: 2021.12

2. Pass holders are required to complete the Continuing Professional Development Scheme for Tourist Guides (CPD Scheme) in the designated period before applying for the Pass. Pass holders whose Pass is issued through the "Waiver Programme for Non-English-and-Chinese-Speaking Tourist Guides" or under the "Accreditation System for Non-English-and-Chinese-Speaking Tourist Guides" are temporarily exempted from the CPD Scheme until further announcements. Non-English-and-Chinese-speaking tourist guides who obtain the general Tourist Guide Pass by completing the SUS In-service Tour Guide Training Course (course discontinued) may choose to: (i) take part in the CPD Scheme in order to renew their Pass, which does not have any restriction on languages to be used; or (ii) not take part in the CPD Scheme, in which case they will only be issued with the Pass for Non-English-and-Chinese-speaking tourist guides when renewing their Pass, and will not be allowed to use Cantonese, Mandarin or English to receive inbound package tours.
3. If Pass holders renew their Pass more than two years after the expiry date, they must pass an examination to be designated by the TIC. Candidates who fail the examination may resit, and the number of resits allowed is not limited.
4. The old Pass must be returned to the TIC when collecting the renewed Pass.
5. In any of the following situations, a Tourist Guide Pass renewal application will be deemed to be in need of special deliberation and will be referred to the Tourist Guide and Tour Escort Deliberation Committee for deliberation:
 - (a) the applicant provides factually untrue information or is suspected of making any false statement;
 - (b) the applicant declares that he/she has been convicted in Hong Kong or elsewhere of an offence which involved narcotics or drugs, sex or violence, or seriously improper conduct or dishonesty (including but not in any way limited to: unlawfully undertaking any business without proper authorisation or permission; smuggling; theft; forgery; fraud; deceit; burglary; handling stolen goods, bribery or corruption);
 - (c) the applicant fails to declare that he/she has been convicted in Hong Kong or elsewhere of an offence listed above;
 - (d) the applicant's Tourist Guide Pass or Tour Escort Pass has been revoked, or the applicant's application for Pass renewal has been rejected;
 - (e) the applicant's Tourist Guide Pass or Tour Escort Pass has been revoked and he/she has failed to return the Pass to the TIC within the required time limit of seven days;
 - (f) the applicant has worked as a tourist guide without a Tourist Guide Pass or with an invalid Tourist Guide Pass; or the applicant has worked as a tour escort without a Tour Escort Pass or with an invalid Tour Escort Pass; or
 - (g) the applicant has violated the Code of Conduct for Tourist Guides or other TIC rules while holding an invalid Tourist Guide Pass and the Tourist Guide and Tour Escort Deliberation Committee / Compliance Committee has imposed a penalty; or the applicant has violated the Code of Conduct for Outbound Tour Escorts or other TIC rules while holding an invalid Tour Escort Pass and the Compliance Committee has imposed a penalty.

III. Change of contact information

The TIC will disseminate its information (including course information) to tourist guides from time to time by SMS, e-mail, fax or post.

In order to ensure effective transmission of information, tourist guides should notify the TIC of any changes in the contact information by downloading the form "Application for Change of Contact Information" from the TIC's website (https://www.tichk.org/sites/default/files/2021-02/change_contact_info_all.pdf), and completing and returning it to the TIC Industry Training Department.
