Dear Joseph,

Suspension of the Passenger Fuel Surcharge

You may wish to know that the Civil Aviation Department (CAD) announced on 20 January 2016 that it is no longer justifiable for a passenger fuel surcharge to be levied in the light that aviation fuel prices have stabilized to a reasonable level. Airlines have been informed that the CAD will not consider applications for the levying of a passenger fuel surcharge with effect from 1 February 2016 until further notice. Subject to the condition of carriage of the tickets concerned, passengers holding one-way or round trip tickets issued before 1 February 2016 for flights departing Hong Kong may be required to pay a passenger fuel surcharge irrespective of travel dates. Please note that passenger fuel surcharges are levied according to the ticket issue date rather than the travel date. Information on the fuel surcharges approved are published on CAD's website.

I would be grateful if you could disseminate this information to your members.

Yours Sincerely,

( Alan SHUM )
